MIDDLE: This pass was hauled down by Gary Cogdill for a Lewis and Clark score in the West Valley game. Lewis and Clark overpowered West Valley by a crushing score of 51-6.

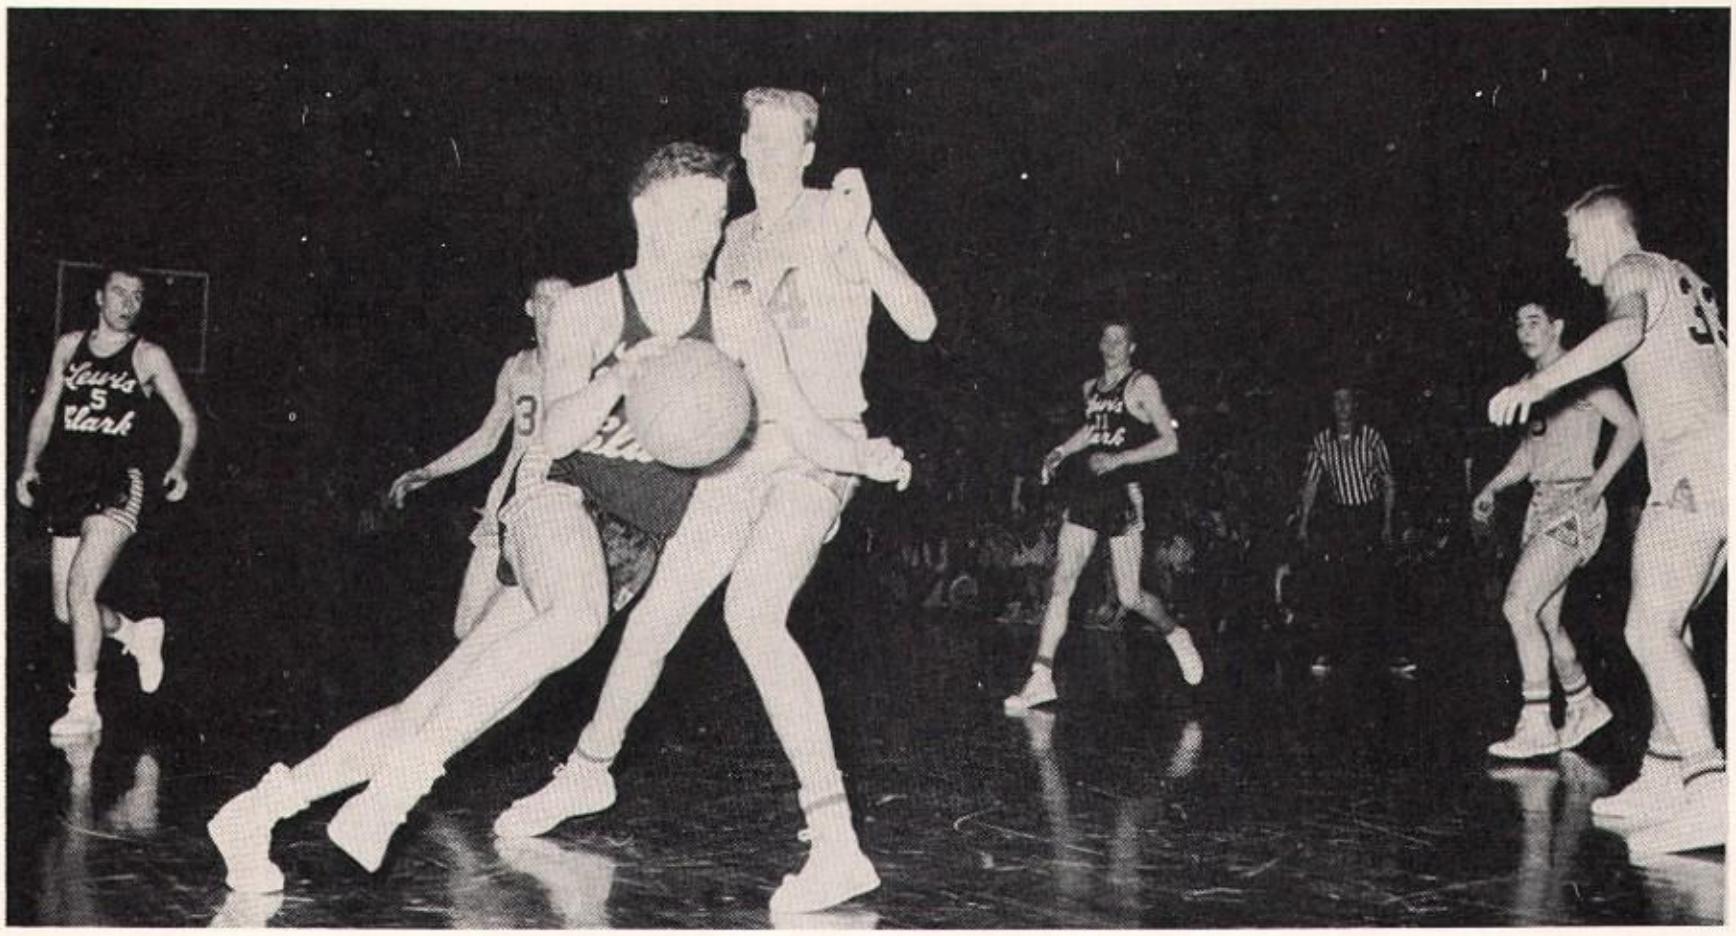
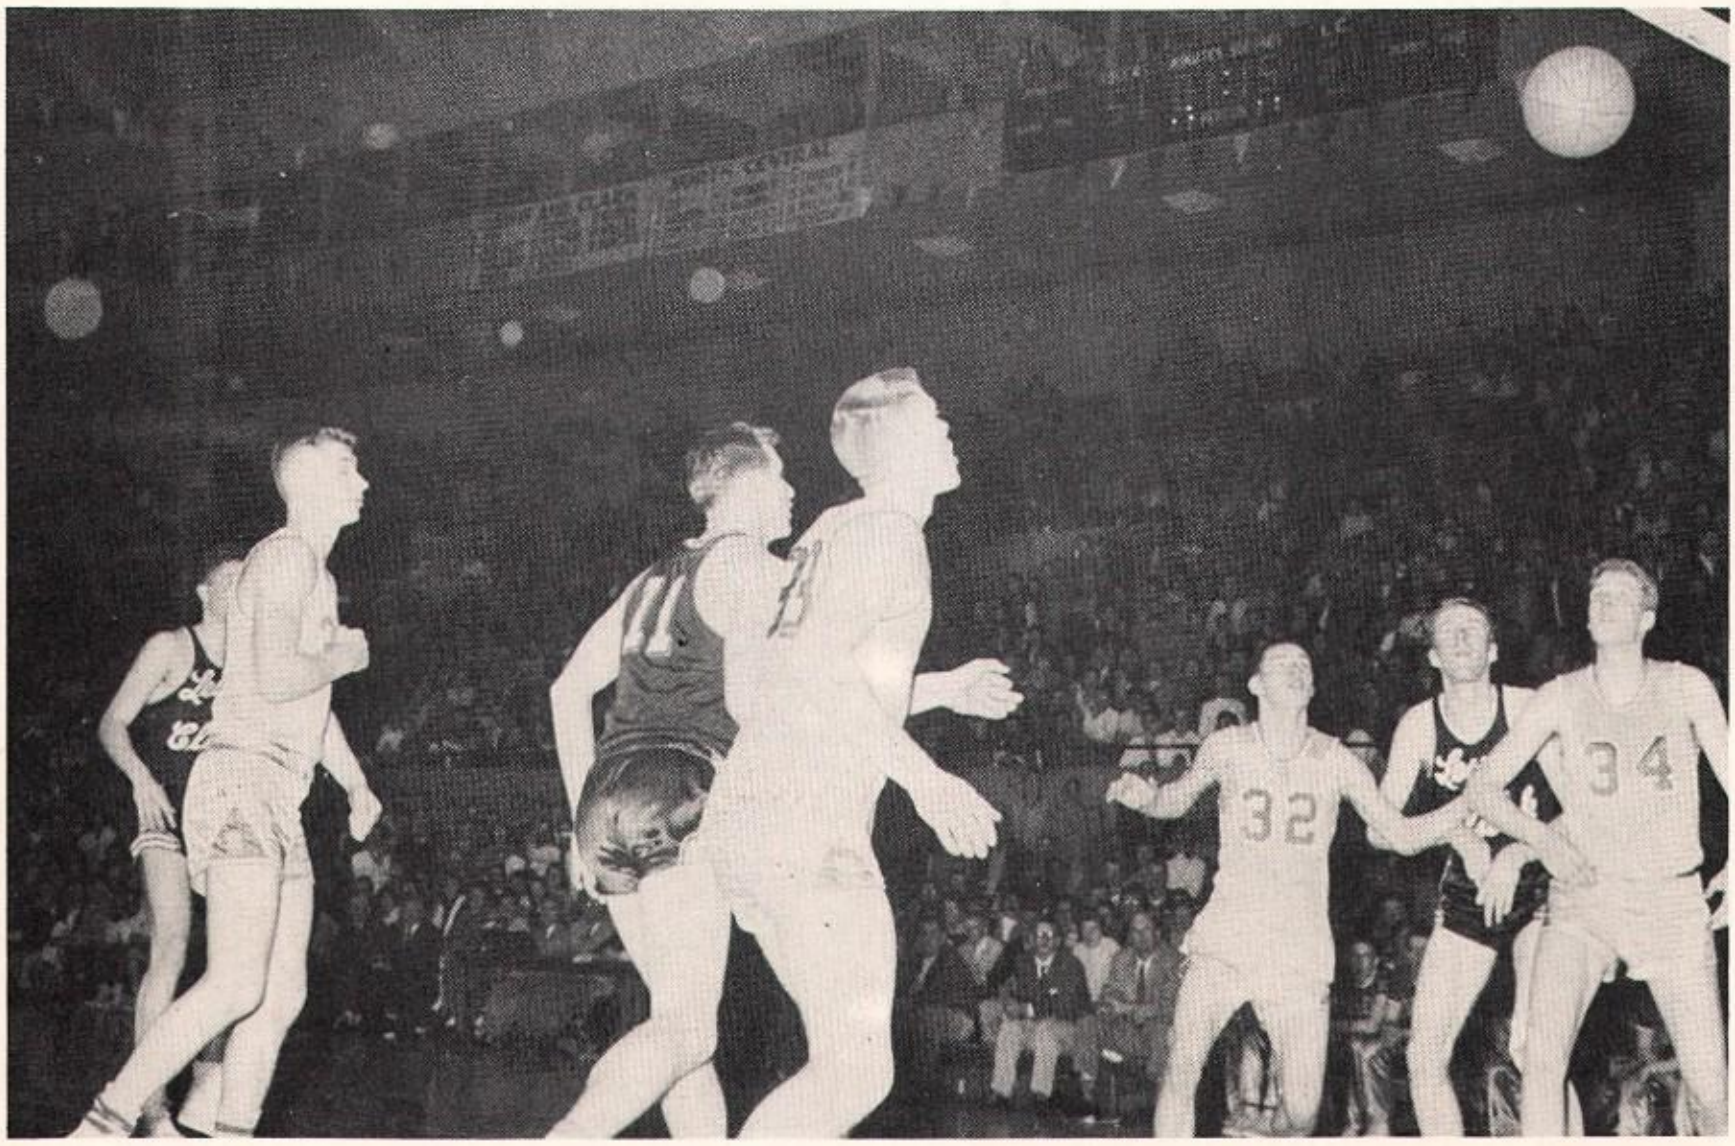
"B" SQUAD CITY CHAMPS: These boys played a tremendous season of baseball. After being defeated at the first game of the season against Rogers, the "B" Squad won all the remaining games to become city champions. Row 1: John Johnson, Paul Lewis, Don Miller, Dave Nightser, Bart Partch, Dick Allen. Row 2: Tom Betts, Bud Cash, Jerome Kanneberg, Doug McBroom, John Sergent, Ron Dittman, Jack Westerman.



DAMON DRIVES THROUGH: Dwight Damon, Lewis and Clark's hustling junior center, rips through Rogers' defense for a probable score. Jack Schlangen (5) and Gary Cogdill (11) await their chance to get into the scramble.



GAME HAD SAD END: The Tigers, who defeated Rogers in a previous game 65-49, went down to defeat at the hand of the Pirates 55-52 in overtime, February 15. The Tigers played a good first half, leading by as much as 19 points, but the Pirates tightened up their defense, and amazed everyone to come back and win. Going after a rebound are the above identifiable players: Gary Cogdill (11) and Dennis Reilly at the right.

EVERY TERM BROUGHT INNOVATIONS

"Hello Week" was boosted to a new importance this year, thanks to the combined efforts of many students, and the direction of Al Keigley. Revisions were made, instituting a "Going Steady Day."
Innovations of President Fred Emry's term were: one-way stairs, a school clean-up campaign, a monthly calendar of activities in the front hall, a suggestion box, and a plan to have six weeks tests spread out over the week before grades.

The interclub council began work to stabilize club meeting nights. Throughout the year, the foster child, Niko, was supported, and four needy families received money at Christmas time. Left to right: Gary Cogdill, treasurer; Peggy Immel, secretary; Fred Emry, president; Jeanne Whitehouse, vice president; Diane Poppe, historian.
The spring semester A.S.B. saw an equally active program. The monthly calendar of activities was carried on through the semester; the new semester was set off with a bounce by the annual Inaugural Ball, which was held in the Spokane Hotel.

The basketball season was climaxed by a big dance, called the Basket Ball Bounce.
Early spring was made important by a thrilling May Week. Each day of May Week was designated for a special activity, climaxed by the big track meet at Hart Field. Left to right: Dwight Damon, treasurer; Barbara Henry, vice president; Al Keigley, president; Judy Perring, secretary; Karl Guenzel, historian.

SOCIAL EVENTS NUMEROUS

INNOVATIONS AND HARD WORK: Girls' Federation activities started with a Big and Little Sister party August 30 in order that new girls could become acquainted before school began. Other events included the Frosty Fashion Style Show by Vogue which was headed by Jan Rubens, and the Dad-Daughter Dessert consisting of two servings antl entertainment headed by Sue Humphreys.

At an open meeting Sandy Leyda, Linda Hughbanks and Judy White told the Federation of their experiences at Girls' State. Several philanthropic projects were sponsored. However, the main event was the outer space Winter Carnival. Its chairman, Marilyn Miller, was mainly responsible for the tremendous success.

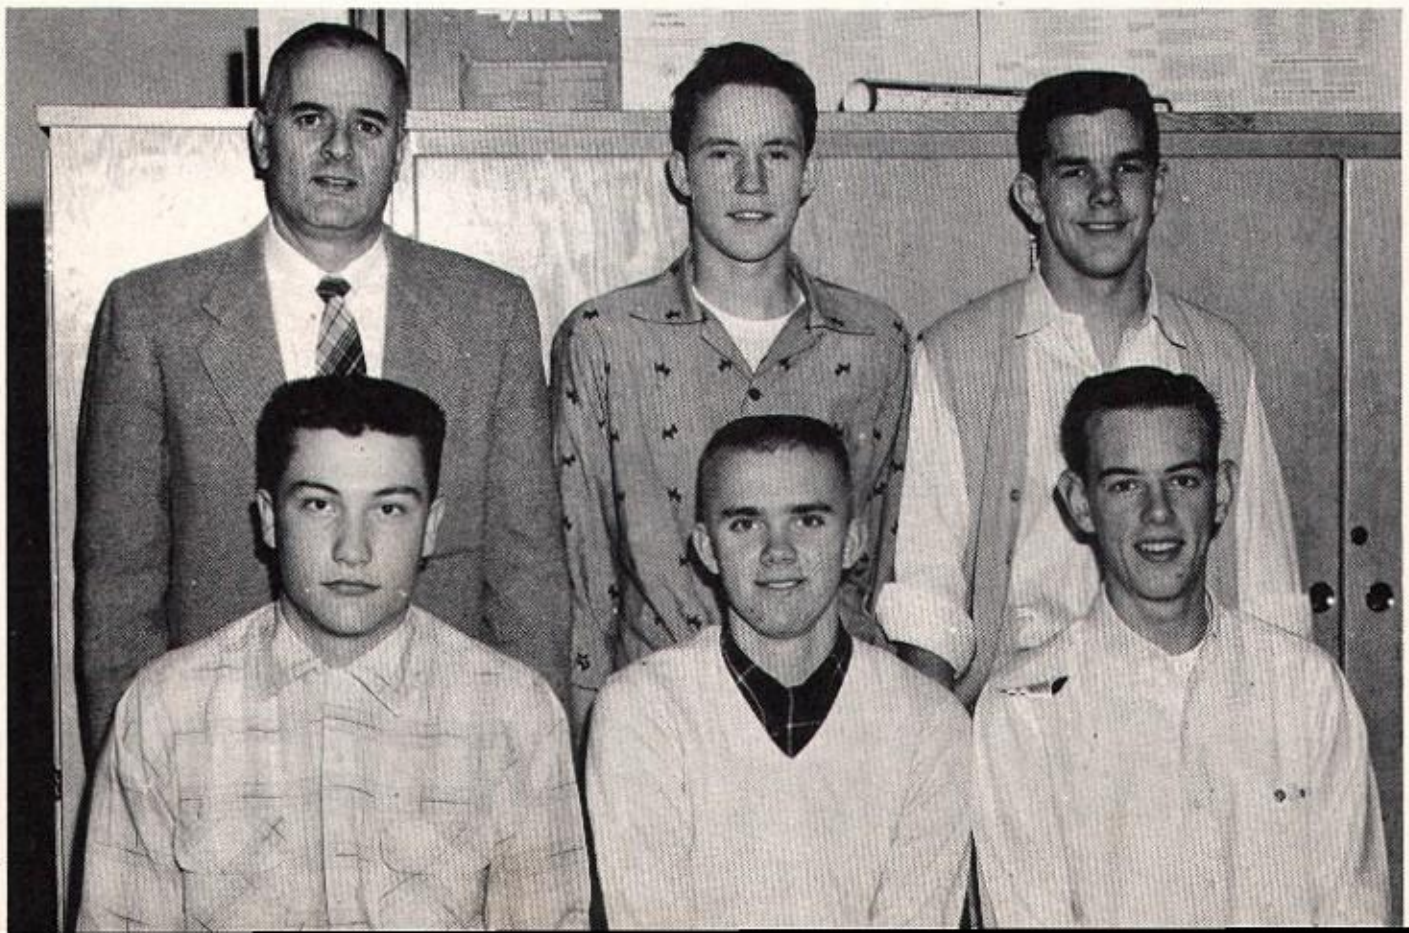
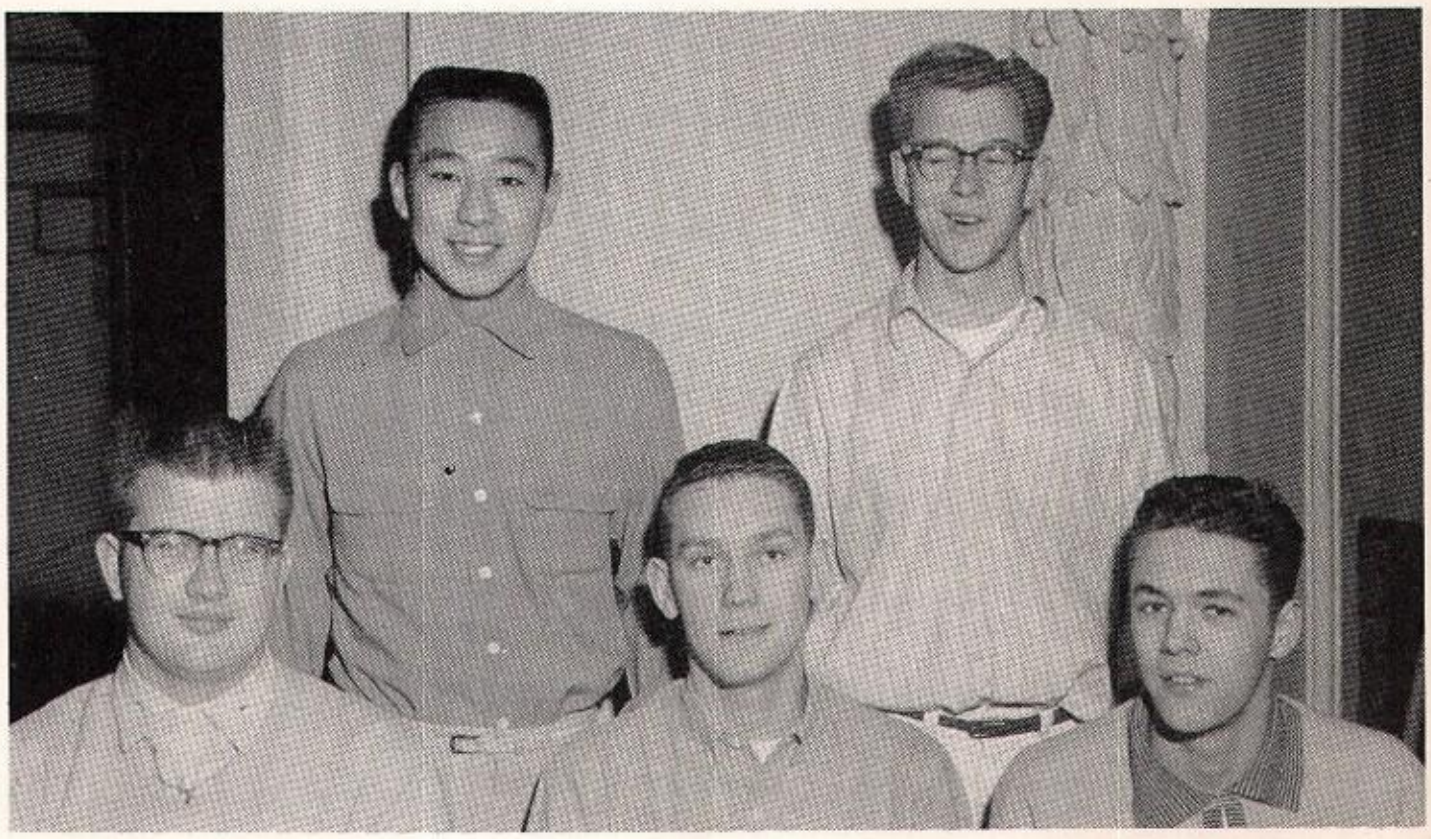
PROJECTS AND VOCATION DAY: The first helpful school project for the Boys' Federation was a Hart Field clean-up. About twenty boys filled large boxes with debris in preparation for a LC-WV football game. The main Christmas activity was a "Yule Yump" mixer. Music was furnished by the Kings' Men, and decorations consisted of a 17-foot Christmas tree in the center of the room.

A great help to students desiring knowledge of future work was Vocation Day. Fifty speakers, top people in their fields, gave LCites inside information on all vocations checked on a questionnaire. Lasting two periods, the Day gave students a chance to learn about two of their main interests. The topics ranged from radio announcing to forest ranging.

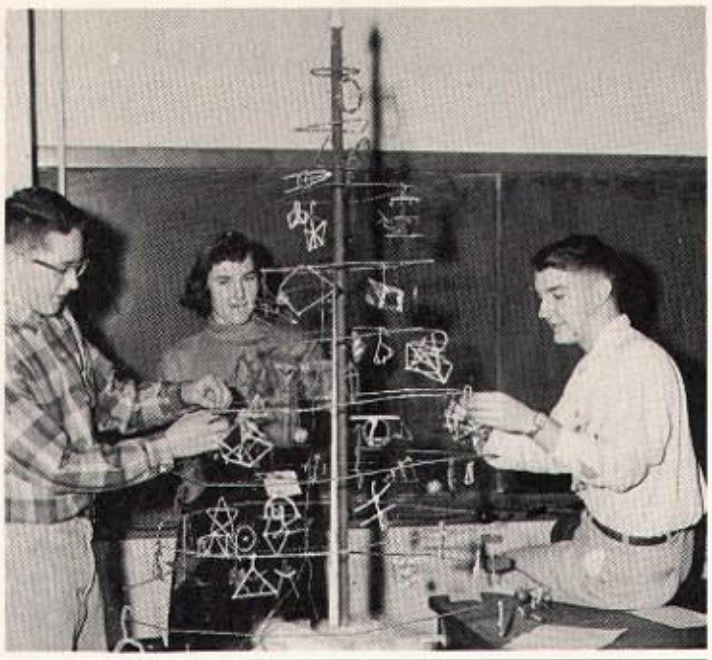
Row 1: Dwight Damon, treasurer; Nelson Christensen, president; Stan Moore, historian; George Palmer, boys' adviser; Chuck Gamble, secretary; John Gallagher, vice president.

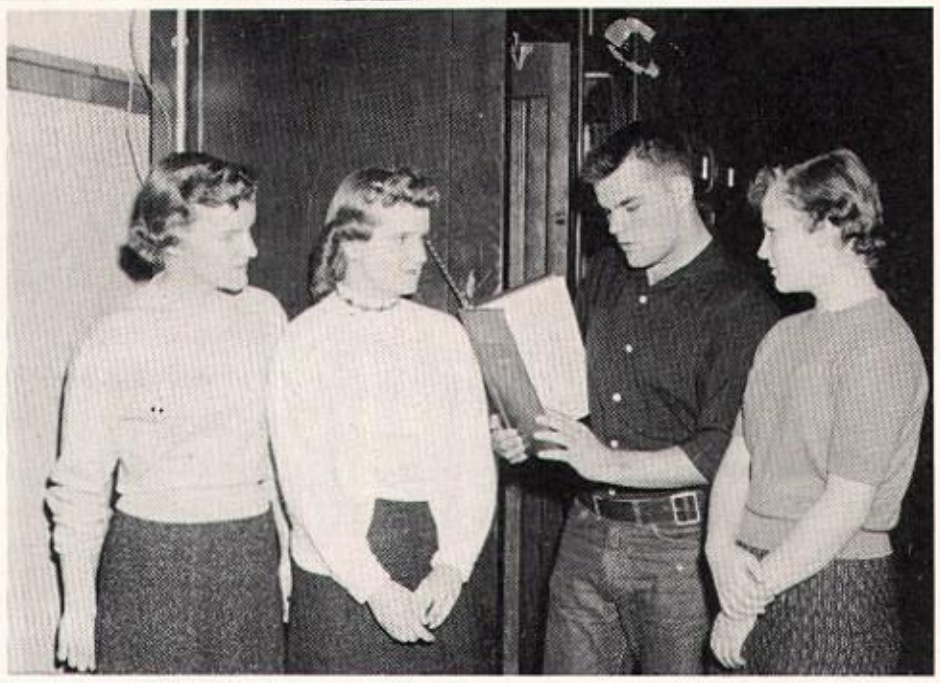


SIX BRIGHT SMILES: New ideas for old activities was the theme of Jeanne Whitehouse's Girls' Federation administration. A dance, instead of a mixer, sponsored jointly with the Boys' Fed. honoring cotton day, and mothers styling clothes and performing entertainment with daughters for the annual tea were two ideas considered. On a trial basis the Federation plans to sponsor the fall of '57 G.F. President's trip to Seabeck — a co-ed leadership conference located in Seattle. Soon after the term began, a coke party honoring both semesters' big and little sisters was enjoyed by over 200 girls. Two standing committees, the courtesy and the coathanger (who are striving to alleviate the coat problem at mixers) continuously worked throughout the year. Row 1: Kenlynn Williams, vice president; Jean Whitehouse, president; Gayle Funnell, sergeant at arms. Row 2: Linda Stallcop, secretary; Val Dutton, historian; Jan Rubens, treasurer.



BOYS' FEDERATION HAS BUSY SEMESTER: The Boys' Federation worked hard on a co-sponsored Cotton Day dance. Their events included a judo team exhibition from Fairchild Air Base, and a talent con starring completely male talent. Appointed committees and faculty chose outstanding boys to receive honors for the highest academic rating, most activities, and a third person combining qualities of both. They were presented at a spring con. Also chosen were several boys to be sent to the annual Boys' State. Officers were, first row: John Forehand, fifth executive; Dennis Caplice, president; Charlie Frey, treasurer. Scond row: Isamu Kawabori, secretary; Linden Connelly, vice president.





Top left: Four years in Lewis and Clark are represented by the Linardos family, Diana, junior; Jim, sophomore; Mary, freshman, and Stella senior. Top right: Decorating a geom-e-tree for Christmas in Mr. Charleson's room are Ed Huneke, Barbara Perkins and Roger Fosseen, three math students. Middle left: Sally McMillan, "big sister of the year"; Judy White, fall semester Girls' Fed. president, and Janna Harris, Sally's "Little Sister" who wrote the winning letter, display the plaque on which Sally's name will be engraved. Middle right: Still another four-class family is represented in LC. This time it's Connie, junior; Judy, sophomore; Rodney, senior; and Sharon, freshman, Deitz. Bottom left: Chivalry is not dead (at least not on Chivalry Day) as boys valiantly tried to prove last fall. And well those girls might gloat, for they paid well on Tolo Day. Bottom right: These happy seniors were chosen to represent LC at Evergreen Boys' and Girls' states last summer. They are Gary Cogdill, Mike Gordon, Judy White, Linda Hughbanks, Nelson Christensen, John Gallagher, Fred Emry, Sandy Leyda, and Al Keigley.

WATCH THE BIRDIE: Clarence Miller and his photography class capture the "Christmas con" on film for the Tiger. GET THAT STORY!: Journalists pound the keys in 106 to meet that deadline. LC, THE FRIENDLY SARDINE CAN: This title typifies the crowded halls every morning (left) and between classes. JUNIOR POTLUCK: Roberta Tonn and Gretchen Swanson were among those who entertained. CHRISTMAS CAROL: In the annual Christmas choral cons were David Thompson, Sonja Pugh, Tom Clark, Clint Hurd, Vicki Weremiczyk, and Larry LaJoie.

TRY-OUTS HELD IN SPRING: Odd things are seen happening in the spring as Ti-Girl initiates are put "through the mill" by the old members. The group is made of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors who have been picked by try-out. To remain in Ti-Girls a C average must be maintained. An orange star is awarded at the end of each semester to those that have earned the required number of points. Row 1: Mitzi Saito, Marilyn Marschante, Linda Laitinen, Lynne Edgerton, Margaret Fritsch, Sandra Dyke, Joan Sather, Barbara Henry. Row 2: Cathy Caldwell, Lois Lindberg, Lynna Parsons, Donna Hoagland, Sue Sather, Linda Wagoner, Arlene Belknap, Margie McArdle. Row 3: Marilyn Kirsch, Marilyn Root, Diane Poppe, Kathleen Henry, Marilyn Selves, Anne Gilman, Dennie Dressel, Judy Peach, Janey Smith. Row 4: Reba Troyer, Margaret Livengood, Marilyn Waters, Florence Brown, Jeanne Whitehouse, Marlys Nelson, Marilyn Bassett, Stephanie Wood, Linda Hughbanks.

It was this group of eight girls that led the cheering and stirred enthusiasm at convocation and sports events for the 1956-57 year. Helping our football team to all-city championship, the girls were led by Diane Poppe. Donna Hoagland led the activities during basketball season. Not enough boys turned out to make it possible to have male cheerleaders.

From the 1956 basketball tournament in Seattle ideas were taken for the new cheerleading outfits. The girls on the ends show the indoor costumes: white blouses; orange, bermuda length linen skirts; and black anklets. The change to black sweaters and black bermuda stockings is shown by the inside girls.

For the first time in the history of the Journal, the editors adopted streamline make-up. The most obvious changes were the flush-left headlines, and the flexible nameplate. The fall semester staff was interested in the students' reactions to the change, and was pleased with its success. Members of the staff, which was ably headed by Doug Sutherlin, placed high in the Gonzaga Press Conference. Top: Bill Campbell, reporter; Patricia Speelmon, reporter; Beverly Richardson, reporter; John Lindgren, sports reporter; Marlys Nelson, reporter, Ilah Black, sports reporter; Phyllis Silver, reporter; Mary Bush, reporter. Middle: Brenda Sewell, advertising manager; Mary Ellen Harris, associate editor; Doug Sutherlin, managing editor; John Kine, associate editor. Lower, bottom row: Ann Cross, mailing manager; Karen Erickson, copy reader; Gretchen Greer, advertising representative; Jan Rubens, copy reader; Marilyn Root, business manager; Sherry Mead, assistant advertising manager. Top row: Jerry Jacobson, circulation manager; Peggy Speelmon, feature writer; Jim Wood, copy reader; Sandy Leyda, copy reader.

THERE'S ALWAYS AN EXCEPTION TO A RULE: The typical exceptions are shown in the picture at the right, where the one-way stairs are being invaded by a few wrong-way goers. However, the idea of one-way stairs was successful and relieved the congestion in the study hall areas.

DOCTOR LAWYER PHOTOGRAPHER *

When you think about it, the family photographer falls somewhere in the family doctor-lawyer classification. The photographer, like the doctor and lawyer, is called upon when major events in your life occur. With a fine studio portrait you can relive in later years the happiness of the engagement, the wedding, the arrival of children. A photograph is part of forever, and our studio takes this responsibility seriously.

We are proud that a large number of students from your graduating class have selected us their photographer this year. We hope this is the beginning of a lifelong relationship.

Dear Helen,

I sure am glad your in my home room. I don't know what I would have done without you, since you know a lot more about this school than I do. I would have gotten into some messes if it weren't for you holding my little hand, like this morning getting the Tiger. You've been a swell friend & I hope I see you next year.
Lots of Luck. Pat Murphy

Hi Helen

It sure was nice knowing you this year. I am looking forward to see you next year. We sure had a lot of fun cooking in old Cunninghams room, didnt we Helen. When you get married, don't forget the recipes Mrs. Cunningham gave us. On second thought you better not use those recipes, you might loose your "hubby". Be seeing you.
